

Jan 9
Lucky

Lucky makes for a perfect showcase for Harry Dean Stanton's last role.

Jan 23
Faces Places

What emerges from the relationship between Agnes Varda and JR is a meditation on everything from self-revelation to change in rural France.

Feb 13
Rumble

The Indians Who Rocked the World The influence of Native Americans on nearly a century of popular music is eloquently demonstrated in this engaging documentary.

Feb 27
Meditation Park

Shum mines her favourite theme in what seems at first to be a gentle slice of life but develops a powerful emotional force.

Mar 13
Novitiate

A piercing, immersive and superbly played convent drama.

Mar 27
Don't Talk To Irene

Michelle McLeod creates an empathetic character in Irene who is so darn likeable we can't help but root for her.

Apr 10
The Leisure Seeker

With great respect for its characters, and a nuanced take on the aging process, this is a road trip unlike any other.

Cinefest@Pynelogs
INDEPENDENT FILM SERIES

Enjoy the intimate setting of Pynelogs Cultural Centre to experience Canadian and International Films on the big screen. Doors Open at 6:30 • Film at 7 pm

Adults - $12 • Kids 13 + under - $5 • CV Arts Members - $11

Tickets at the Door or on-line at www.columbiavalleyarts.com

Pynelogs at Kinsmen Beach in Invermere
For More Information
Call CV Arts at

250-342-4423 or visit
columbiavalleyarts.com